Mrs. Rullo's Friday Letter

Important Information:

**Due to server issues I have not been able to send out emails. Hopefully the problem will be solved over break. If you have anything urgent, please email me and leave a call back number. Thanks for your patience.

**Happy Holidays! See you in January.

What we did this week in these subjects...

Language Arts:

We talked about cause and effect and looked for examples in our story. We read Farfallina and Marcel. We reviewed characters and plot. We talked about friendship and things we like to do with friends. We reviewed nouns and verbs.

Math:

This week we started our chapter on addition. We talked about parts and whole. We talked about the plus and equal sign. We wrote some number sentences. We practiced adding one, two, three, and four to numbers.

Core Knowledge:

This week we wrapped up our unit on weather. We talked about the seasons and how they change.

Homework:

- Read book bags
- Math worksheets

Have a great break!
